

TEACHING about the HOLOCAUST

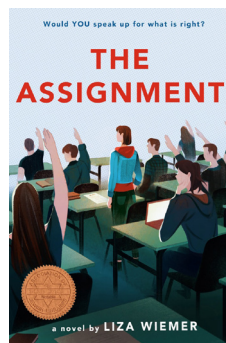

August 18 | 9 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Wisconsin Idea Room | UW–Madison

This FREE, full-day workshop will have sessions valuable to both Social Studies and English Language Arts educators and prepare Social Studies teachers to implement Act 30. Educators will receive tangible resources and lesson plans to supplement their new curriculum. The workshop will close with a talk with award-winning author, Liza Wiemer, about her young adult novel, The Assignment.

Pre-registration is required.

REGISTER NOW

This event is hosted by the UW-Madison School of Education's Department of Curriculum and Instruction and the Office of Professional Learning and Community Education (PLACE). This partnership was made possible by the generosity of the School of Education's Impact 2030 Initiative.